

Spiders and Cupcakes in the Attic?

That morning Luke had a warm shower and ran out of soap. Quietly, he crept upstairs to the attic to find some more. In an old box he found green, gory cupcakes. Luke saw them and immediately wanted to eat them. Like a lion, he devoured them all, not knowing what they had inside. As he was eating, he looked above and saw filthy cobwebs dangling from the ceiling. Hairy spiders looked down on him as they thought how tasty Luke would be. Excited by the thought, they dropped down on top of him. With lightening reactions, Luke hit the spiders away from him and ran. Exhausted, he lay down on his bed and fell asleep.

Oliver Bk

16 September 2019